

Terms & conditions of sale

1 FORMATION OF CONTRACTS

- a All contracts of sale made by MotionLink Ltd (referred to herein as 'the Company') shall be deemed to incorporate these terms and conditions. No variation of or addition to these terms and conditions shall form part of any contract unless made or specifically accepted by the company in writing.
- b These terms and conditions shall override and take the place of any other terms and conditions in any document or other communication used by the purchaser in concluding the contract with the company.
- c No contract shall come into effect until the purchaser's order has been accepted in writing by the company.
- d The application of the Uniform Laws on International Sales shall be excluded. The construction validity and performance of all contracts shall be governed by the laws of England and any claim or dispute arising therefrom shall be subject to the jurisdiction of and be determined by the English courts.

2 PRICES

Unless otherwise expressly stated in writing by the company orders are accepted on the basis that:

- a The price stated is exclusive of value added tax or similar taxes which will, where appropriate, appear as separate items on the Company's invoice.
- b The price stated is the net price of the goods (after deduction of any discounts) for delivery f.o.b. at the port shown herein or otherwise in accordance with the contract.
- c The Company is entitled, without prior notice, to adjust the price stated to take account of any change in specification made at the request of the purchaser or any alteration before the date of delivery in the cost to the Company of labour, materials, subcontracted services, import or export duties, tariffs or transport which directly affects the cost to the company of supplying the goods.

3 PAYMENT

- a Unless otherwise expressly provided for in writing prices are due and payable in United Kingdom sterling 30 days after the date of invoice in respect of any shipment.
- b If the purchaser shall fail to make payment in full in accordance with paragraph a of this condition then, without prejudice to any other rights of the company, the purchaser shall, without any need for the company to give notice, become liable to pay the company interest on the amount for the time being unpaid. This interest will be paid at the rate which is 3% per annum above the Base Rate of the National Westminster Bank Plc calculated from the date of due payment until the date of actual payment after as well as before any judgement and:
 - I the company shall be entitled to suspend all or any other deliveries to be made under that or any other contract with the purchaser. In such event the purchaser shall not in any respect be released from its obligations to the company under that or any such other contract.
 - II Instead of suspension in accordance with paragraph I above the company shall be entitled to terminate the relevant contract or any other contract with the purchaser in accordance with condition 15 below and to claim damages from the purchaser for breach of contract.
- c Where carriage, packing or other charges are stated separately from the price they will nevertheless be payable by the purchaser at the same time as if they formed part of the price and shall be treated as such.

- d Time of payment is the essence of these terms and conditions.

4 DESPATCH AND DELIVERY

- a Whilst the company will use all reasonable endeavours to keep any stated dispatch or delivery date it accepts no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage resulting from delay howsoever the same shall have been caused.
- b Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the company shall have the right to deliver some or all of the goods in advance of the specified delivery date(s).
- c Risk in the goods shall pass to the purchaser when the goods are delivered on to the carrier's ship or aircraft or otherwise delivered on to the carrier's transport in accordance with the contract.
- d The purchaser shall keep the goods fully insured against all risks normally insured against at least throughout the period between the risk therein passing to the purchaser and the property therein ceasing to remain with the company.
- e In cases where the company concludes the contract of carriage and/or arranges for the insurance of the goods for transit the company shall be deemed to be acting solely as agent of the purchaser and sub-sections (2) and (3) of section 32 of the Sale of Goods Act 1979 shall not be applicable.
- f Before dispatching any goods to be delivered elsewhere other than at the company's premises the company will send to the purchaser an Acknowledgement stating the expected date of delivery. If the goods are not delivered or upon delivery are found to be damaged or short the company shall not in any event be liable unless:
 - I the purchaser gives written notice to the company and to the carrier within four days of the expected date of delivery as stated on the acknowledgement and,
 - II in the case of short or damaged delivery the purchaser gives the company or its representatives a reasonable opportunity to inspect the goods concerned in the state, condition and location in which they were delivered.

5 PROPERTY

- a Notwithstanding delivery of the goods or of any documents representing the goods the property in each item of the goods shall remain with the company until receipt by the company of payment in full for such item.
- b The purchaser shall (unless otherwise agreed by the company in writing) ensure that all goods which are in the possession or control of the purchaser and the property in which remains with the company are, so far as is reasonably practicable, stored separately so that they may be readily identified unless clearly marked as being the property of the company.

6 DRAWINGS, etc

- a Unless otherwise agreed in writing all patterns, tools, jigs and fixtures required in the performance of the contract by the company shall, notwithstanding any charges thereof, be or remain the property of the company.
